In what was billed as “The National Wrestling Duals”, and featuring nationally ranked teams from eleven states, Carl Sandburg High School of Illinois won their bracket with three very convincing wins during the two day event. On the first day of competition, Sandburg rolled through their pool. In the first dual, they outwrestled a fine Goodhue, MN team 59-6. Frazee, MN was up next for the team from Illinois. With a 65-6 win, Sandburg rolled into the finals of their bracket.

Perennial power Apple Valley, MN met interstate rival Owatonna, MN in the
